SCCIT's Mission

SCCIT's mission is to provide regional guidance and support the development of multimodal transportation systems in and around Snohomish County to ensure the safe, efficient movement of the community, employees, customers, clients and goods. SCCIT has been a leading voice in supporting past transportation packages in Washington State including the 2003 Nickel Package, 2005 TPA, and most recently Connecting Washington in 2015.

What is SCCIT?

Established in 1984, Snohomish County Committee for Improved Transportation (SCCIT) is the primary business-led transportation advocate within Snohomish County promoting strategic solutions with an emphasis on improving the long-term quality of life for the residents of Snohomish County and ensuring the most competitive business environment in the Puget Sound region.

Who is involved?

SCCIT is a recognized organization comprised of business, citizen, and governmental leaders with a common interest in seeking solutions to our mobility challenges that includes most of the cities within Snohomish County as well as a number of companies in the private sector.
